

31 July 2017

The ZRA Training Certificate Program for Zoological Registrars will be held at the 2017 Annual Conference in Columbus, Ohio on Friday, 29 September. Cost for this workshop is included with a full-conference registration; if attending only the training class, the cost is $45 for non-members and daily registrants. The class will be held at the conference hotel, Double Tree Suites by Hilton Columbus Downtown, 50 S. Front St, Columbus, Ohio, 43215.

The focus of the class is "The Basics": best practices and key principles for the zoological registrar role and for creating, managing and maintaining high quality animal records. The principles that will be taught can be applied to any kind of record system, paper or computer, and will be appropriate for those who are new to or interested in entering the profession. Information provided may also serve as a means for established registrars to update themselves on changing best practices.

If you have questions concerning the content of the training program, please contact Jean Miller at jmiller@buffalozoo.org or by phone at (716) 662-2305. If you have questions about how to register for the training program, please contact Shelly Roach, 2017 ZRA Annual Conference Host, at shelly.roach@columbuszoo.org or by phone at (614) 645-3465.

ZRA is very proud to be able to provide this training to the zoological community!

Be sure to register by 15 September 2017:

<http://zooregistrars.org/conference.php?page=register>.

Rae

Rae Lynn Haliday, CRM, Chairman, ZRA Professional Development Committee